

Regarding Sinclair Broadcasting's intention to broadcast as news a program titled "Stolen Honor" I am registering my disappointment. Perhaps "Stolen Airwaves " is an apt title to describe their intention.

Yes, this is a particularly ugly and heated election in our history. I do not think that the long term interests of our Republic and our Democracy are served by such pandering and theirs. We are best served with balance and insight, not bludgeons and blinders.